Light Rail Fare Options

Agreement Fares

Agreement fairs allow you the opportunity to purchase a fixed number of rides at a discount from the standard fare. These agreements may be purchased at a NJ TRANSIT station, NJ TRANSIT ticket office in New York City, or the Hudson-Bergen Light Rail terminal.

Commuter Passes

Commuter passes offer a lower fixed fare for up to 30 one-way rides to the same destination. To purchase a commuter pass, you must present proof of employment at a NJ TRANSIT station or at the Hudson-Bergen Light Rail terminal.

NJ TRANSIT Bus Pass

A NJ TRANSIT Bus Pass allows you to make unlimited transfers on NJ TRANSIT bus services. To purchase a NJ TRANSIT Bus Pass, you must present proof of employment at a NJ TRANSIT station or at the Hudson-Bergen Light Rail terminal.

Child Fare

Children (ages 5-11) save 50% on the regular fare when accompanied by a paying passenger.

Senior Citizen and Disabled Reader Tickets

Senior citizens (age 65 and older) and disabled readers may purchase a reduced fare ticket upon presentation of a valid NJ TRANSIT ID card.

One-Zone Transfer

You may purchase a one-zone transfer during your ride. Each zone is defined in the fare zones diagram. The one-zone transfer is good only for rides within a single fare zone. You may purchase multiple one-zone transfers for rides that cross multiple fare zones.

Multiple Zones

If you plan to travel through multiple zones, you may purchase a reduced fare ticket that is valid for travel within all zones.

Complimentary Shuttle Service

Complimentary shuttle service is available for travelers with reduced fare tickets. To receive complimentary shuttle service, you must present your NJ TRANSIT ID card and reduced fare ticket at the New Jersey Institute of Technology or New York University-New School of Law. The shuttle service is available from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on weekdays.
